PREFACE.

SUCH introduction to the three volumes of Registers as may be thought advisable will be found in the volume containing the marriages. Therein also will be found all the notes written in the original volumes which have not been printed among the entries. Be it remembered that everything in this volume within [] is editorial ; that a surname within () after a woman's name is her maiden or former name ; that —— represents what is blank in the original register, and represents what I cannot read.

[Here between September and October follow two leaves containing the clause of the Act of Parliament as below and a list of "Baptisms for which no duty is paid," 35 entries from April 1784 to Oct. 1793. I have thought it best not to print these 35 entries separately by themselves but with the rest in their proper order. I have marked them with an asterisk. Ed.]

By Virtue of an Act of Parliament passed in 23 George 3, chap. 68, a Duty of 3 pence was charged on each Baptism, in which is inserted the following Clause :—

7th Provided also and be it further enacted that nothing herein contained shall extend to charge the Entry in any Parish Register of the Burial of any Person who shall be buried from any Workhouse or Hospital or at the sole Expence of any Charity, nor the Entry in any Parish Register of the Birth or Christening of any child whose Parents shall receive at the time of the Birth or Christening of such Child any Parish Relief.

EXTRACTS 1801 to 1812.

Many children are not baptized or are not received into the church and entered in the register till some months or years after their birth. From the remaining entries in this volume I have extracted all those that relate to children born before the end of 1800. When a younger child born after 1800 is baptized on the same day as an elder brother or sister born before 1800 I have entered it also. Ed.

INDEX No. 1.

PERSONS BAPTIZED.

References to Err : are to Errata.

When one form of a name is starred, e.g. Best* under Beast, the references to that form will be starred also.

The index does not give all the different forms of spelling.

Sometimes different forms of the same name are brought together, sometimes entered separately with or without cross references.

ERRATA.

- P. 2, Oct. 20. This seems to be Penam, but I think Pinner is meant.
- P. 7, March 12. For Thamas read Thomas.
- P. 23, May 7. For Ratcliffe read Ratliffe.
- P. 79, Feb. 14. Terret in the original, but should be Terrel.
- P. 114, July 10. I think Fewell should be read Sewell.
- P. 133, Nov. 25. Milles [?] should almost certainly be Balles.
- P. 141, Dec. 19. For Harrett read Everett.
- P. 168, May 30. For Merry read Mercy.
- P. 202, Oct. 17. Season in the original, but should be Seadon.
